From the Editors Desk

Hello All,

Well, we are into the New Year already. After the Christmas party at Burleigh Town Tavern, It all went very quiet for a while. But it would seem that a few of our stalwarts, have been going to a few of the first car outings of the year. Just a reminder to keep up to date with what the club is doing, just look up the “Leyland P76 Owners Club Queensland” on Facebook or simply give one of the club committee members a call.

This month I have included pictures from the Christmas Party, Bayside Car Restorers Club Ormiston and Nev on the front page at Aussie World.

More pictures are available at <http://www.leylandp76.com/clubs/qld/2015/ozdayormiston.html>

And an interesting article on a racing P76 from New Zealand

A Farmer Joke!!

A farmer stopped by the local mechanics shop to have his truck fixed. They couldn't do it while he waited, so he said he didn't live far and would just walk home.

On the way home he stopped at the hardware store and bought a bucket and a gallon of paint. He then stopped by the feed store and picked up a couple of chickens and a goose. However, struggling outside the store he now had a problem - how to carry his entire purchases home.

While he was scratching his head he was approached by a little old lady who told him she was lost. She asked, 'can you tell me how to get to 1603 Mockingbird Lane?'

The farmer said, 'Well, as a matter of fact, my farm is very close to that house I would walk you there but I can't carry this lot.'

The old lady suggested, 'Why don't you put the can of paint in the bucket. Carry the bucket in one hand, put a chicken under each arm and carry the goose in your other hand?'

Why thank you very much,' he said and proceeded to walk the old girl home.

On the way he says 'Let's take my short cut and go down this alley. We'll be there in no time.

The little old lady looked him over cautiously then said, 'I am a lonely widow without a husband to defend me... How do I know that when we get in the alley you won't hold me up against the wall, pull up my skirt, and have your way with me?'

The farmer said, 'Holy smokes lady! I'm carrying a bucket, a gallon of paint, two chickens, and a goose. How in the world could I possibly hold you up against the wall and do that?'

The old lady replied, 'Set the goose down, cover him with the bucket, put the paint on top of the bucket, and I'll hold the chickens.
